LORE

“From under the ground we will rise. Soon, the Whole of Ionia will be ours!”

An amalgamation of a young Ionian woman, a black widow spider, and a termite queen, Shiro-kumo is the Progenitor of the Arthropod Clan, an unknown clan of dark ninjas with human, yordle, Voidborn, Shadowborn, and vastaya warriors and followers. Records say that she is the illegitimate lovechild of the Void Queen and the Spider God; this is proven by her slender and pretty upper physique and her arachnid thorax and legs. Her immense termite-queen abdomen is bloated with the eggs of her future children but this does not impede her quick feet. An extra four legs grow from its end in order to support her in thread weaving. The webs she weave are fatal to any creature, for she decorates them with her blood. This bloody web drains the life out of its victim, and the venom within it transfers this life to the Queen herself.

Such a Progenitor like this is born only once in a millennia, and thus, she is taken care of greatly, learning everything there is to know about the clan, including its history. This makes Shiro different from past Queens; while others would dismiss the immense clan's history, she would finally do something about it. She would finally make the first step in reclaiming the lands now known as Ionia, and send to the ground all those who dwell above them.

Those above better beware. The Arthropod Clan will rise again.

SKILLS

P: The Progeny

While walking, Shiro-kumo leaves an egg every 9-3 seconds, depending on her level. If undisturbed for 6-1 seconds, depending on her level, it hatches into a small spiderling which has 10 - 180 (+ 10% AD) health and attacks for 15 - 33 (+10 % AP) physical damage (also depending on her level). Spiderlings pursue an enemy, prioritizing minions over champions. Shiro can have a maximum of 18 Spiderlings around her at one time.

Q: Switching Hands

Shiro-kumo can switch between melee and ranged basic attacks based on her hands.

Normal Hand: Shiro fires kunai. For every fifth basic attack, she sends an exploding kunai, dealing (10/12.5/15/17.5/20% AP) explosive damage to enemies in an area of 450.

Sword Hand: Shiro slashes her enemies. For every fifth basic attack, she increases her range to 250 and swipes in a 150 degree cone, dealing (10/12.5/15/17.5/20% AD) physical damage.

EC: 10 Energy at all ranks

CD: 3 / 2.5 / 2 / 1.5 / 1 seconds

W: Web Rip

Shiro-kumo fires a web towards an enemy champion, which deals 20/25/30/35/40 (+10% AD) (+10% AP) every second for five seconds or until the enemy goes out of her range.

Shiro can recast the spell to retract her web early, healing for 50/55/60/65/70% of the total damage applied.

EC: 50 Energy / 25 Energy

CD: 10 / 9 / 8 / 7 / 6 seconds

E: Spider Fusion

Shiro fuses Spiderlings in groups of three into a Clone Ninja, which has 75/100/125/150/175 (+20% AD) (+15% AP) health, and deals 35/40/45/50/55 (+5% AD) (+10% AP) damage to enemies. Ninjas prioritize MINIONS and MONSTERS over champions.

If there are two or more Clone Ninjas with her, she can recast the ability, fusing Clone Ninjas in groups of two into a Drider Ninja, a human-spider hybrid which has 100/150/200/250/300 (+30% AD) (+20% AP) health, and deals 50/60/70/80/90 (+15% AD) (+20% AD) damage to enemies. Unlike Clone Ninjas, Drider Ninjas prioritize CHAMPIONS over Minions and Monsters.

*This ability is castable only if there are more than three Spiderlings on the field. Each clone ninja is 3 spiderlings, each drider ninja is 6 spiderlings in total.

EC: 60 Energy / 40 Energy

CD: 16 / 14 / 12 / 10 / 8 seconds

R: Rise of the Army

For 3/3.5/4 seconds, Shiro plants her insect abdomen in the ground and stays immobile. Spiderlings constantly rise up from the ground and home in on an enemy, blowing up and dealing 250/300/350 (+70% AD) (+50% AP) damage.

EC: No Cost

CD: 120/110/100

LOOKS LIKE:

- Upper half: An albino woman with white hair, a face similar to some of the Ionian champions.
- Lower half: Thorax and legs of a black widow, except all of them are white. Abdomen of a termite-queen (16 feet long, underside is the insignia of a spider with antennae), with an extra four legs growing from its side.
- Attire: Blue ninja upper wear, and some blue armor covering her arthropod features.

PERSONAL LIFE:

- Shiro-Kumo is still a minor despite her more “young adulty” upper half. She’s only 17. (Besides, who would want to lewd a termite-queen-nope-centauress hybrid anyway?)
- She is the Progenitor of the Clan who has gone outside more often than past Progenitor Queens.
- She dislikes Syndra, period.
- Shiro-Kumo is often called Shiro by her friends down below. This is not the same Shiro that Jinx has.

- Shiro resents both her mom and dad, and thus has a deep hatred for Elise, Cho'Gath, Vel'Koz, and Kha'Zix.
- She is a huge fan of K/DA, but is pissed off that Kai'Sa has very minimal role in the debut single.
- She can rap. She wishes to defeat Akali in a rap battle soon.
- She can DJ and produce music because she secretly learned from DJ Sona's training videos. Her biggest wish to collaborate with Kai'Sa and Evelyn, also Karthus.
- Her favorite tea is chamomile.
- She is engaged to Savali. Akali disproves of it.
- She always puts on extremely powerful sunscreen before going out.
- She thinks Ahri is too overrated as an artist.
- She owns a white hat and blue rounded sunglasses.
- All her clothes are either white or blue.
- If she's not planning for Ionian domination, she usually engages in Tantric yoga.
